July, 2012

Dear Parents, Students and Friends of Mount Saint Joseph High School,

In September of 1977, when I first entered a Catholic high school, I never realized that my life would change forever. On my first day, I was greeted by a man with a slight Irish brogue, sparkling blue eyes, and a great smile. He said, “Welcome to Ryken High School. You must be George Andrews from Charles County. I hear you want to run cross country.” I was stunned that this man knew who I was. It was only later I realized that I had submitted a personal photo with my school application. This was my introduction to the Xaverian Brothers and their charism.

I had grown accustomed to going through public school as a relative unknown. I was now in an environment where the faculty actually wanted to get to know their students and were going to look after all aspects of their development. At Ryken, I was blessed to have caring Brothers and lay teachers who cultivated my interests, challenged me academically, and took a real interest in developing my faith. This was a different type of high school.

By graduation, I had grown in many ways and had a deep appreciation for the gift of a Xaverian education and the commitment the Brothers and the lay faculty had to their students. While it still took me a number of years to discern my vocation as a Catholic educator, I will always be indebted to the Xaverian Brothers for their service to me and my classmates. I have a solid foundation for understanding what a Xaverian school can do for a young person because I lived it.

In the mid-1990’s, as an assistant principal at Mount Saint Joseph, I would return to Saint Mary’s Ryken to serve on the school board led by another personable Irish man, Xaverian Brother James Kelly, C.F.X. Brother James always demonstrated a passion for Xaverian education which called for developing enduring personal relationships and humble service to the students in their care.

As I return to the Mount after fourteen years of seasoning and education as a Catholic school principal, I truly understand what it means to return to a Xaverian Brothers Sponsored School. Since our founding by Brother Bernardine in 1876, Mount Saint Joseph is still fortunate to have a dedicated group of faculty and staff members who understand the need to cultivate the faith of our students, encourage their academic pursuits and nurture their individual talents while developing a true interest in “taking care of the boys,” as Brother James would often say. The Xaverian Brothers charism is alive and well today with the lay faculty which includes many graduates of Xaverian schools.

Just recently, I was in attendance at the Cathedral of Mary Our Queen for graduation which brought back so many fond memories. Senior speaker Adam Gracia talked about his class as “Brother’s Class” (Brother James). Four years ago this class of 2012 came on campus as boys, and as Adam noted so well in his speech: they leave as “brothers for life.” They move on with a wealth of confidence, a sense of their rich faith, and an idea of what their purpose in life might be.

It is truly a blessing for me to be able to return home to the Mount and the Xaverian Brothers who did so much for me and continue to do for the students in their care.

Sincerely,

George E. Andrews, Jr.
President

Mothers' Club News

The Mothers’ Club extends a warm welcome to our incoming freshman moms and invites all Mount Saint Joseph moms to become members of our organization. We have been a part of the Mount tradition since 1934 and have grown to be not only an active, hospitality and fund-raising group but an educational and supportive one as well.

Our meetings are held on the first Tuesday of every month at 7:30 p.m. in the cafeteria. Our meetings feature a speaker focusing on aspects of raising teenage boys and ways of encouraging and strengthening positive relationships, as well as planning the many opportunities and experiences the Mothers’ Club organizes and sponsors.

Our Welcome Tea will be held on Sunday, September 9. This is a wonderful opportunity to learn about our organization, meet new moms, and cast your eyes on beautifully decorated table displays and enjoy a nice lunch.

Whether you are a new or experienced MSJ mom, the Mother-Son Communion Breakfast is an event not to be missed! We encourage you to mark your calendar as this year’s breakfasts will be held on Sunday, October 14 and Sunday, October 21. More information will be provided in upcoming Newsletters and on the Mothers’ Club section on the MSJ website.

The Mothers’ Club is instrumental in the Operation Mount Campaign, basket bingo, spaghetti dinner for charity, a holiday fair, parents’ dance and the fabulous fashion show. In addition, we assist with back-to-school nights, homecoming, open house and parent-teacher conference night. So there is a lot to do in the Mothers Club!!! Our organization is made up of dedicated individuals wanting to be a part of their son’s Mount experience. We encourage all to become an active participant of the MSJ community.
