Dear Parents and Friends of Mount St. Joseph High School,

I am often asked the following questions when describing the Mount: How can it be a Xaverian school with only one Brother on staff? What does “XBSS” mean? What does it mean that the Mount is a Xaverian Brothers Sponsored School? How can one refer to a Xaverian School without Xaversians around every corner?

Some years ago, beginning when I was in high school, the leaders of the Xaverian Brothers realized that eventually their schools would no longer be staffed primarily by Brothers. While in many cases, like Mount Saint Joseph, the schools were thriving and carrying on the work of the Brothers, they did so with few Brothers on staff. Today some of the other schools in the Xaverian network have no Brothers teaching and only a few Brothers serving on their Boards of Trustees.

When I was being vetted and interviewed by various stakeholders of the Mount community during my return journey to the school, much time was spent discussing how to keep the Xaverian charisms alive and well here at the Mount. From a purely philosophical perspective, the values of the Xaverian Brothers have always resonated with me; they are what I grew up with and what I experienced in high school at Ryken.

For me, and I suspect many others who have lived through the transition from a faculty made of predominantly Brothers to one with a majority of lay teachers, it began with Mr. John Plevyak - a leader of the new age in Xaverian education. While the boys of the Mount today will spend countless hours on a field named in his honor, they will never know what he meant to many of us lay educators. Mr. Plevyak lived the Xaverian charisms with great humility for the fifty-plus years he served this community.

In my younger years, David Letterman’s “top ten list” was often the signal for me to retire for the evening - have a laugh as I ended the day. I considered having the body of this Newsletter be a top ten list of faculty and staff according to their year of service to the Mount. This idea went awry when after a couple of seconds the number of folks on my mental list ballooned well beyond the number ten, then twenty and beyond.

Creating this list has given me pause to think of who is now leading the charge in providing the foundation for our present and the future. Mount Saint Joseph remains very unique because of the commitment of its faculty and the number of educators who have devoted their entire lives to the Mount. Mr. Barry Fitzpatrick (Mr. Fitz as he is commonly referred to by the student body,) has served as principal, interim president, guidance counselor and the face of the school since the early 1990s. Most principals last only three years in a given position. Barry carries the Xaverian banner and has provided stability to the Mount throughout his tenure. The many names of Mount faculty and staff with over 30 years of service include: Joe Cegelski (48), Bernd McDivitt (47), Tom Hughes (41), Dave Norton (38), Ken Pittman (38), Jean Schmidt (36), Steve Jeffrey (34), Walt Lambert (33), Laverne Wallace (32), and Jerry Naylor (32). In addition, the following have 20 plus years of service: Jody Harris (28), Judy Byron (26), Dan Peightel (25), Scott Beck (24), Vic Corbin (24), Sarah Peightel (24), Dot Sexton (24), Ira Cunningham (23), Ivelisse Gonzalez (23), Bernie Kenyon (23), Greg McDivitt (23), Dale Wolters (23), Rick Peters (21), Dave Adams (20), Tony Brockmeyer (20), and Paul Kellermann (20). Also in this illustrious group are our three recent retirees: Teddy Rukowicz (45), Pat Roach (36), and Pearl Thames (31). All those listed above knew Mr. Plevyak and understand that our charisms are carried on by people who have given their entire professional life to this school.

I am thrilled to be back on the team of those who have a commitment to the Mount and the Xaverian charisms for the next generation. Humility, zeal, simplicity, compassion and trust are things that make the Mount unique. Our mission to bring young men closer to Christ, in addition to our sense of social justice, is what the Mount is all about.

Please keep Mount Saint Joseph in your prayers, especially our faculty, staff, and administration, as we lead these young men into another school year.

Sincerely,

George Andrews
President

Volunteer Substitutes Needed

One of the most significant experiences for your sons at the Mount is their time spent on retreats. An integral part of that retreat experience is the interaction between our young men and the faculty and staff who accompany them. That leaves us with classes to cover, and we are asking for volunteer substitute assistance for the 2012-2013 school year. We greatly appreciate your presence and assistance if you are available to take part in this important service and ministry. All new volunteers must undergo a criminal background check and must be STAND trained. We will assist you in completing these procedures. If you are interested in helping and willing to make a commitment to this important service of substitution, please contact Mr. Robert Peace, Director of Staff Formation, at 410-644-3300 or contact him by e-mail rpeace@admin.msjnet.edu.

Mothers' Club News

Welcome - On behalf of the Mothers’ Club Board we extend a warm welcome to all incoming freshman and upperclassman moms. The Mothers’ Club is an integral part of the Mount Saint Joseph school community and a wonderful avenue to share and learn about the wholesome and rich character of the school in which we have placed our sons to be educated. The Mothers’ Club's activities during the first half of the year include the Welcome Tea, Back-to-School Nights, Mother/Son Communion Breakfasts, Operation Mount, Basket Bingo, and a spaghetti dinner for My Brother’s Keeper. These are in addition to our fun and informative monthly meetings that are held the first Tuesday of each month starting October 2, at 7:30p.m.

Welcome Tea - You are cordially invited to attend the annual “Back-to-School” Welcome Tea, sponsored by the Mothers’ Club, to be held Sunday, September 9, from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m., in the cafeteria. This is a wonderful opportunity to learn about our organization, meet new moms, welcome the freshman moms and reconnect with mothers you haven’t seen all summer. Please be our guests for this lovely event and cast your eyes on the beautifully decorated table displays and enjoy a scrumptious lunch. All mothers, including alumni moms, are welcome. You will delight in an afternoon of interesting conversation and hear enlightening tidbits from the President and Principal of the school, as well as past and present moms.

Mother-Son Communion Breakfasts - It is hard to believe the Mother-Son Communion Breakfasts are right around the corner. This is a great opportunity to make a special Mount memory with your son! Mark your calendar for either Sunday, October 14 or Sunday, October 21. Tickets are $20 per person and will be available to purchase at the Welcome Tea, through the mail, and at the Back-to-School nights. Plan ahead and purchase tickets early if you would like to attend this event as it routinely sells out. If you would like to request to be seated with someone else, that request, along with your payment, will need to come together in the same envelope. For more information, please utilize the Mothers’ Club section of the MSJ web site or contact Shyami Murphy - shyami1@verizon.net, Doreen Klose - klosecall5@verizon.net, or Kelley Israel - seisraels@verizon.net.

Operation Mount - This is Mount Saint Joseph’s version of the One Book. It features commercial and personal ads that are sold by the students and their parents. This is the Mothers’ Club’s biggest fundraiser. Letters of explanation will be sent in the beginning of September and will include forms to solicit ads. The student kick-off assemblies will also be held in the beginning of September. Many volunteers are needed for various positions. The Operation Mount commitment is for two or three days per week for only five weeks. Are you a party organizer? Perhaps you can coordinate our Friday doughnut parties for the winning homerooms. Please contact us and we will be happy to have you join our team. Contact Sue Wenzlick - wenzlick@verizon.net.

My Brother’s Keeper - Donations of white tube socks, travel-size toiletries, toothpaste, toothbrushes, razors, feminine products, coffee, and sugar would be most appreciated. You can drop off your donations between 9:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. at My Brother’s Keeper, 4121 Frederick Road, Baltimore, MD 21229. For more information, contact Sharon Campbell, wees4@comcast.net, or Vicky Kenney, mjvk@cablespeed.com.

Membership - If you would like to join the Mothers’ Club, please send your name, address, e-mail address and phone number, along with your son’s name and year, and a check for the $10.00 lifetime membership fee made payable to the MSJ Mothers’ Club, to the Business Office, attention Mothers’ Club Membership Committee. You may also join at any Mothers’ Club sponsored event.

MSJ Holiday Bazaar Fair & Christmas Service Project - Tuesday, December 4, in the cafeteria. Interested in becoming a vendor? Please contact Fran Howard, 410-303-6486 or by e mail mfrchoward@verizon.net.

Welcome back to our veteran students, parents, administrators, faculty, and staff. This year will provide an opportunity to deepen our relationships with each other as members of the Mt. St. Joseph school community. When I look around campus, though, it does not take long to notice all the new faces that have appeared! So if you are feeling a little overwhelmed by the sense that you are “the new kid on the block,” don’t worry. You are not alone! You have plenty of company that includes our new president, Mr. George Andrews, some new faculty and staff members, and our 280 freshmen, our transfer students and of course, our new parents. Just remember that it will take some time to feel a part of this new environment. One huge advantage you have, however, is that you have joined a school that truly believes in establishing “enduring personal relationships.” This phrase is an integral part of our school’s mission statement. You can read the Mount’s mission statement: on our website, in picture frames in every classroom and office on campus, and in the students’ handbooks.

Establishing relationships takes time. We each have to make it our responsibility to put effort into nurturing personal relationships. For the students it has begun during the first days of school and for many of them it may have began during tryouts for fall sports. Whether a student made a sports team or was cut, there were many opportunities to be together with MSJ students and getting to know some new faces and names. The faculty and staff have had time to welcome our new additions during our preliminary meetings and at our group’s Mass and picnic.

So as a Mount parent, how will you be able to build relationships with other parents and the rest of the Mount community? Plan on attending as many events and meetings on campus as your busy life allows. Come to the Back-to-School nights. Attend parent meetings and ceremonies specific to your son’s current grade (Ryken and DePaul Program monthly parent meetings, Homecoming games, Science Fair awards nights, the Junior Ring Ceremony, senior graduation events, etc.) Also expand your campus visits by attending school plays, concerts, sporting events, even if your son is not involved in these activities. Parents and guardians are always needed as volunteers, so read the monthly requests for help from different campus groups and plan on attending the monthly Mothers’ Club and Fathers’ Club meetings. Finally, take the lead and introduce yourself to other parents and the faculty and staff. In no time, you will establish strong friendships, many that might endure for the rest of your life!
