

National Library Week

April 12th - 16th

Monday 8:50-9:30 [G] & 9:35-10:15 [C]

Horror fiction and science fiction writer Tom Monteleone will talk about his writing career and best-selling supernatural thrillers.

Tuesday 10:45-11:25 [D] & 11:30-12:10 [E]

Entertainer and author Mark Tabron will present "Nations Creation: The History of African American Music".

Wednesday 10:45-11:25 [D] & 11:30-12:15[E]

Jazz musician Rob Levit & his trio will perform and teach the unique art of scat-singing.

Thursday 11:30-12:10 [E] & 12:15-12:55 [F]

Loud Poetry Guy will conduct fast and funny poetry readings and story readings.

Friday 1:45-2:30 [A]

Faculty members Mrs. Zimmer and Mr. Shearer will discuss their recent trip to Israel and share some amazing photos!

Students MUST sign up in the library to attend the presentations !!!

Space is limited!!!

Parents are welcome to attend the presentations, however reservations are requested. Please call Mrs. Wichmann at extension x337. Thank You!